We need your help!! Our church will be serving the Howard Lions Club Dinner on Tuesday, May 1st at 6:30 PM. As a result of this yearly activity, the Lions Club makes a very generous donation to the church. This year we are in need of extra hands to help serve the meal—some of the folks who usually help have a conflict. Please sign up in the Library Area!

Here are some addresses of some folks that would really appreciate a card to let them know we are thinking of them.

Two upcoming theatrical performances by Ted & Co. TheaterWorks!

3rd Way Collective is excited to be joining with a few other student organizations in bringing Ted & Co. back to State College for two performances this spring.

On Wednesday, April 18th Ted & Co. will be performing Listening for Grace at St. Paul's United Methodist. In Listening for Grace, Ted Swartz uses his distinctive humor and insight to give voice to our fears and hopes when a faith community engages in questions around sexuality and same-sex relationships. Accompanied by Justin Yoder on cello and Phillip Martin on piano, this story comes to life, inviting audiences into one father's journey, a church's struggle and a search for commonality. <https://www.facebook.com/events/186140331988017/>

On Thursday, April 19th Ted & Co. will be performing their newest show, Discovery: A Comic Lament, hosted at State College Presbyterian Church. This show is a play about the Doctrine of Discovery, the legal framework that justifies theft of land and oppression of Indigenous Peoples. It finds unexpected humor at the crossroads of justice and land use, offering both comic and challenging glimpses into the absurdity of white settler oppression of Indigenous Peoples and the land we live on. A show about love, and loss, of land, Discovery nudges us to question our stories with honesty and integrity. <https://www.facebook.com/events/721416661536412/>

Both shows will be free, both will be held at 7pm, and students and community members are welcome!
